FOOD ALLERGEN DECLARATION

Long Binh Branch of Olam Vietnam Ltd. has developed a robust system for the management of major food allergens (1) (2) which minimize the risk of their unintentional presence in the supplied products. The manufacturing facility does not use any of the major food allergens in the preparation or manufacture of their products. These allergens are not used on any of the production lines, nor are they knowingly present in the production facility.

Furthermore, employees are made aware of allergens and our programs through periodic orientation and training programs and the GMP policy.

Long Binh Branch of Olam Vietnam Ltd. site is BRC Global Standard for Food Safety Issue 8 certified and undergoes yearly surveillance audits by recognized Accreditation Agencies to validate the efficacy of our Food Safety and Sanitation Programs.

Finally, purchased ingredient specifications and vendor reviews further reinforce the Olam Spices brand allergen restrictions to ensure that none of the major food allergens are introduced into our facilities.

(1) As listed in the Annex II of Regulation EU 1169/2011 and Annex of Regulation EU 828/2014

(2) As indicated by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) in the Sec. 202. Findings of the Food Allergen Labeling and Consumer Protection Act of 2004 (FALCPA)
